> Take the Papers. BY N. P. WILLIA.

Why don't you take the papers! They're the life of my delight, Except about election time,

And then I read for spite. Subscribe! you expect lose a cent; Why should you be afraid?

For cash thus paid is money lent At interest four-fold paid.

Go, then, and take the papers, And pay to-day, nor pay delay, And my word for it is inferred,

You'll live until you're gray. An old neighbor of mine,

While dying of a cough, Desired to hear the latest news

While he was going off. I took the papers and I read Of some new pills in force;

He bought a box-and is he dead? No-hearty as a horse. I knew two men, as much alike As e'er you saw two stumps,

And no phrenologist could find

A difference in their bumps. One takes the papers, and his life Is happier than a king's, His children all can read and write, And talk of men and things.

The other took no paper, and, While strolling through the woods, A tree fell down and broke his crown

And killed him-"very good." Had he been reading of the news At home like neighbor Jim,

I'll bet a cent that accident Would not have happened him. Why don't you take the papers? Nor from the printer sneak, Becaused you borrow from his boy A paper every week. For he who takes the paper,

And pays his bill when due, Can live in peace with God and man, And with the printer too.

VARIETY.

A CHURCH FAIR-The beautiful being who sings soprano.

Why have chickens no hereafter? Because they have their necks twirled in this. Little Johnny-" I heard somebody crying in there, and it wasn't ma nor the doctor." -" May be it was the kitten." For FEAR .- Physicians recommend the omission of all words of over sixteen syllables at the spelling-schools, for fear of lock-jaw. Talk about the poetry of motion and sylph-like grace, but did you ever stand by and see a woman use a one-tined fork to flop a stove cover off? A confectioner, who twelve years ago taught his parrot to say "Pretty creature" to every lady who entered his shop, is now a millionaire.

The model husband of the period is the man who will hold the baby for a couple of bours every night while his wife catches up with the trial.

"John, John, wake up; there's a burglar in the house," said the wife. John sat upright in bed. "Burglar, b-u-r-g-l-a-r-burglar"—and he rolled over, waiting for a harder word.

TALLER.-" Papa, are you growing taller all the time?" "No, my child, why do you ask?" "Cause the top of your head is pozing through

Has THE RIGHT .- The Woman's Journal says that every woman has a right to say "by gosh' when she stumbles over the cat and shoots under

ACROBATIC DISPLAY .- At recent wedding, according to a local paper " the bride walked on the arm of her father." The spectators must have been surprised at such an acrobatic display. An Indianapolis paper says of an Indiana Sen-ator: "His chagrined look when he clutches that pointed beard to milk his brains, and they won't 'give down,' has a most depressing look to all beholders."

The London correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury says that an evidence of the popularity of the hymns of Messrs. Moody and Sankey, is the fact that they have been adopted as the foundation for a set of quadrilles. Was a Good Clock .- "That clock, stranger, said a Michigan farmer, " was the best kind of clock up to six months ago, when my daughter began to have beaux, and now the blamed thing is always two hours too slow."

A DOUBLE DIFFICULTY .- " Can't the Chinese be trained to eat grasshoppers ?" is the question that agonises one part of the great West; while another is riven with anguish over the great inquiry, "Can't they train the grasshoppers to eat the OFTENER.-Speaking of the traveling of sound, a lecturer said : "The voice of a woman can be heard further than that of a man." "Yes, and oftener," said a disgusted looking man, who was not happily fixed at home. The British public offices now print most long official letters, instead of having them written. For £100 a year, including the cost of paper, the work of several copying clerks is done. It thus appears that the printer is driving out the copyist. " Did you steal the complainant's coat?" asked a magistrate of a seedy individual arraigned before him. "I decline to gratify the morbid curiosity of the public by answering that question," responded the seedy individual, with a glance at

Max Adeler says: "A Coroner of ours seized Egyptian mummy that was brought into town, summoned a jury, held an inquest on the mummy, brought in a verdict of Death from causes unknown," and charged the county with the usual fee, with compound interest from the time of Reader, never make a fool of yourself by writing a letter while in a passion, to anybody, however high or however low. And even if under great provocation, take a noble pride in exhibiting the dignified courtesy of a gentleman, and the forbearance of a Christian; and remember, the more you gloat over the severity of what you have written, the more of an ass you will be for sending or publishing it. LOVE OF PUPIL FOR TEACHER .- Passing one of the city schools yesterday, we listened to the scholars singing, "oh how, I love my teacher dear." There was one boy with a voice like a tornado, who was so enthusiastic that he emphasised every word, and roared "oh, how I love my teacher dear" with a force that left no ossible doubt of his affection. Ten minutes after, that boy had been stood on the floor for putting shoemaker's wax on his teacher's chair, got three demerit marks for drawing a picture of her with red chalk on the back of an atlas, been weil shaken for putting bent pins in another boy's chair, scolded for whistling out loud, sentenced to stay after school for drawing moustaches on his face and blacking another boy's nose, and soundly whipped for slapping 339 chewed paper balls up against the ceiling, and throwing a big one into a girl's ear. You can't believe half a boy says when he sings .- American paper .
